Title: Social Medicine and Social Pharmacy

Supervisors: Jason C. Hsu

Keywords: social medicine, social pharmacy, health policy, pharmaceutical policy, public health, global health

Project type: quantitative research, data analysis, international comparison

Duration: 4-6 weeks

Project Description:
1. Students have to generate a study proposal in social medicine or social pharmacy fields first, and discuss with supervisor to make the final decision of the directions of projects.
2. The supervisor will guide students to finalize the study by teaching them whole issues about research, including study design, data collection, statistical approach, manuscript writing and oral/poster presentation.
3. Students may join some relative courses and cooperate with Taiwanese students in NCKU during the staying.

Requirements: basic knowledge about statistics or economics